WISCONSIN RAPIDS POLICE AUXILIARY

The City of Wisconsin Rapids Police Auxiliary is accepting applications for Auxiliary Officers. The Auxiliary Police is a volunteer unit that assists and supplements patrol services. Auxiliary Officers provide added patrols during special events; but they may also provide crowd control, scene security, or other functions as requested. Auxiliary Officers are trained in pepper spray, defense and arrest tactics, and other crowd control issues. Police Auxiliary Officers are unsworn volunteers who assist the Police Department with community-oriented functions.

Training, uniforms, and equipment are supplied by the Police Department. The selection process will include application screening, interview panel, and background investigation. This is an unpaid position.

Applications will be accepted until 4:00 p.m. on Friday, October 27, 2017, at:
