

OTTO ROENIUS ELECTED STATE PRES.

Elks in State Convention at Wausau Place Highest State Honor on Grand Rapids Man.

Otto Roenius, of this city, was unanimously elected state president of the Badger Elks this morning at the convention of Wisconsin Elks being held at Wausau.

The state presidency is the highest state office that can be conferred upon an Elk.

In the election of Mr. Roenius to this high office, the Elks have shown good judgment and have elected a man who lives the true life of the Elks, who believes in the teachings of the lodge and who carries those teachings out in his daily life and in his dealings with his fellowmen.

That Mr. Roenius will add dignity to the high office to which he has been elected goes without saying, and that he will carry out the duties of that office to the best of his ability and to the entire satisfaction of those who have placed him in this position are things that can safely be predicted.

President Otto Roenius was a charter member of Grand Rapids Lodge, No. 693, which was organized in 1901, and has always been an enthusiastic worker for and in the interests of the Elks and what they stand for. It is such men as Otto Roenius who have made Grand Rapids Lodge No. 693, what it is in membership, in the quality of the men who belong to it and who have made it possible to build the big Elks Club house which is to be erected in this city this summer.

The city of Grand Rapids basks in the reflected glory of the election of one of its citizens to this office of state president. Grand Rapids is proud that one of its citizens has received this honor and Grand Rapids will turn out when the new State President returns home and show him and the world that it is proud to have one of its citizens at the head of the Best People On Earth.
